REVOLT OF WETS IN NO. MICHIGAN GOES TO SMASH

Fades Away Before Approach of Administration Leaders Show Federal Agents Signs of Worry

FOREIGNERS LOSE NERVE G. O. P. CAMP CONFIDENT

Heard Troops Were On the Way and Displayed White Flags from Their Homes

Chicago, Feb. 24.—The liquor rebellion in Iron county, Michigan, apparently had subsided upon the approach of Major Dalrymple, federal enforcement chief and his picked force of armed assistants.

The foreign born element composing most of the population reported to be greatly excited over the possible use of federal troops and in a number of instances white flags were displayed from a number of houses.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Major A. V. Dalrymple, supervisor of prohibition enforcement for the Central Division, left here with a band of armed federal agents at 6 o'clock this evening for Iron County, Mich., where, it was reported, there was a rebellion against prohibition.

Major Dalrymple declared that he was going to Iron County for "a showdown between the Federal Government and the violators of the Federal (Eighteenth) Amendment. He declared that he would arrest P. A. McDonough, prosecuting attorney of Iron County; two deputy sheriffs, the captain of police and three "influential citizens" of the district wherein the alleged revolt occurred.

"I do not want bloodshed, but if the State authorities stand in the way I am going to shoot," he said just before he left Chicago.

Denial of a report of rebellion against prohibition enforcement in Iron county was made by Mr. McDonough to the correspondent of the Sun and New York Herald here this evening. Speaking over the long distance telephone, Mr. McDonough declared that it was "as quiet as a graveyard" there, and that there was no rebellion. He asserted that he was "helping the Federal agents every way possible."

However, Maj. Dalrymple looks on the situation through other glasses. He declared that he had authority from the Government in Washington to make arrests, and that he would do so.

"This is a showdown between the Federal Government and the violators of the federal amendment," he said. "I am going to enforce prohibition. I do not want bloodshed, but if the State authorities stand in the way and they are backed by their political cohorts, I am going to shoot. I do not believe that the revolution displayed by the State officials as reported to me, represents the feelings of the people of Michigan. These people showed by their vote some time before the amendment just what they thought of prohibition."

Maj. Dalrymple is proceeding on the theory that the arrest of Mr. McDonough and other Iron county officials is necessary. It was authoritative stated that a request was made by federal agents here on United States Commissioner Hatch, in Marquette, for warrants to arrest these officials. The request was refused. It was asserted, on instructions by Myron H. Walker, United States District Attorney in Grand Rapids, immediately H. M. Gaylor assistant prohibition commissioner here, instructed Maj. Dalrymple to proceed under arms to Iron county and arrest the men without warrants and then to report to him.

Maj. Dalrymple referred to Mr. Walker as "a wet through and through."

DEMOCRATS MAY DESERT WILSON TREATY FIGHT

Signs of Worry

G. O. P. CAMP CONFIDENT

Republicans Claim 22 Democrats, Only Dozen Short of Number to Assure Ratification

Washington, Feb. 23.—(By The Associated Press.)—Possibilities of a substantial break in the Democratic peace treaty ranks in the Senate impelled influential Democratic senators to move today for a caucus to discuss a possible change in party policy, and revived the hopes of the Republicans that their treaty might yet be ratified with the Republican reservations adopted at the last session of Congress.

On the Republican side it was asserted that twenty-two Democrats, only a dozen short of the number required to insure ratification had signed a willingness to quit the lead of President Wilson and take the Republican reservation program as it is. This total the administration chiefs declared exaggerated, but they conceded that there were a vote taken tomorrow on the Republican resolution of ratification, it would command more than the seven Democratic votes it got last November.

The movement for a Democratic caucus may bring into the open, its sponsors believe, the dissatisfaction that has smoldered in some Democratic quarters since the President sent his memorable letter to the caucus of November 19 asking that the senators of his party vote against ratification on the basis of the Republican reservations. The seven senators who disregarded his advice have been active constantly in their effort to dissuade others from the stand then taken, and it has been an open secret that their move, coupled with current political developments, has met with some success.

But among both Democrats and Republicans it is realized that the endeavor to break down Democratic resistance still has a long way to go if it is to succeed. Sixty-four votes are required to ratify the treaty and although 34 Republicans voted for ratification in November the party leaders are sure now of the support of only 30. That leaves 34 to be delivered by the Democrats, an even dozen more than the figure which represented the peak of Republican claims today.

In the belief that time is fighting on their side, the plan of the Republican leaders is to first clear away collateral issues of the treaty disagreement when the subject comes again before the senate probably tomorrow. The next reservation to be considered in the revision being undertaken on the senate floor is the troublesome qualification of article ten, against which the President has directed his principal criticism; but the Republicans expect to ask that it be laid aside until all the others have been acted on.

Meantime it is pointed out, a Democratic caucus may have developed the real strength of the movement among Democratic senators to break away from past policy of resistance and put the treaty through. Should a majority of the 47 Democrats vote in the caucus to make such a move, it is expected by the Republicans that the effect would be to bring over the votes needed for ratification.

Island of Curacao in Caribbean Hopes He Will Come

New York, Feb. 22.—The rumor that the Netherlands Government is contemplating banishing William Hohenzollern to the Dutch islands of Curacao, where they make an excellent cordial containing much more than 275 per cent of alcohol, was received enthusiastically by the residents, according to passengers arriving yesterday by the Red D. liner Caracas and other Caribbean ports. The islanders believe the presence of a next Emperor will attract tourists, advertise the island and its products and materially increase its prosperity.

Two men recently arrived on the island and made a survey of sites for a building. They were mysterious and reticent, and naturally the islanders indulged in speculative gossip about their objects. One of the theories, accredited to several Americans who had been sampling the celebrated island orange liqueur, was that the two surveyors were picking out a site for a palatial home for William Hohenzollern.

Mrs. Sarah S. Lambert, widow of the late Cornelius M. Lambert, passed away at the home of her son, E. L. Lambert, at 4 o'clock this morning. She had been in feeble health for several months but the immediate cause of her death was pneumonia.

She was a devout Christian woman, highly respected in the community with which she had so long been identified and the news of her death will be received with sincere regret by all who were so fortunate as to be included in her large circle of friends.

Other than her son, she is survived by one brother, W. E. Smith of Lyme, and two grandchildren, Wilbur and Milton Lambert.

INJURED IN A "SCRAP"

David Murphy Taken to Putnam Hospital Monday Evening.

David Murphy, who was injured in a wrangle resulting from a game of cards on North street Sunday, was taken to the Putnam Memorial hospital Monday evening. The young man is not seriously hurt but the attending physician deemed it best that the victim of the scrap be given better attention than he could receive at his room.

Murphy's head and face are considerably bruised. The details of the trouble are not known but Monday a young man named Bartello was brought before municipal court, pleaded guilty of creating a disturbance and was placed under bonds for further hearing on Saturday. In the meantime Chief of Police Richard Hurley is endeavoring to locate Joseph Hogan who is charged with having been the third party in the mix-up.

Monday afternoon three young men were summoned to the office of the state's attorney following informal complaints that they were not conducting themselves in a strict accord with the statutes prohibiting games of chance. No warrants were issued. The conference was merely a "heart to heart" talk with the prosecuting officer doing the greater part of the talking. One of the trio, who evidently had not heard that the country was "dry" last July, offered to buy off the state's attorney. He was told to make an abrupt change in his conversation. Otherwise he would be given an indefinite vacation "under the clock."

COUNTY COURT IN SESSION

Judge Chase Here to Preside at Chancery Hearings.

Judge Harry B. Chase of Brattleboro arrived here Monday afternoon to preside at chancery hearings.

Soon after Judge Chase's arrival the case of state vs. Tony Partio of Manchester was taken before the court. Partio was arrested some time ago for a statutory offense and was admitted to bail in the sum of $500. He failed to appear when the case was called.

Monday the ball, furnished by Mrs. Lombardi, was called and a motion was made to change the bond. Attorney Henry Chase appeared for Mrs. Lombardi and the amount of bail was reduced to $100.

RAILROAD BILL WAITS DECISION OF PRESIDENT

Hints of Veto Appear in Senate Debate

ADOPTED BY 47 TO 17 VOTE

Cummins Flatly Denies Guarantee Is Given in Measure and Explodes Criticism

Washington, Feb. 23.—By a vote of 47 to 17 the Senate adopted today the conference report on the railroad bill which was passed by the House on Saturday. The bill now goes to the President. Only three Republicans, France (Md.), Gronna (N. D.), and Borah (Idaho) voted in the negative.

There was a full day of debate, opening with a statement of the bill's substance by Senator Cummins (Ia.), who was in charge of it. Whether the President will sign it has been questioned for several days. The impression that he may veto it came up today when Senator Pittman (Nev.) during a speech against it, intimated a strong belief that it might be rejected at the White House and its revision made necessary, particularly as to the long and short haul provisions, which are unsatisfactory to the intermountain country.

As was the case in the House on Saturday, the galleries were packed. Labor leaders of all the railroad
